A Call to the Nation

Pastor Carter's New Weekly Radio Program

Since September 2014, Pastor Carter has been on the radio with his daily devotionals "It's Time to Pray," five days a week on Christian radio stations in 40 states. Starting on February 5, 2017 he will be launching a new weekly radio program, "A Call to the Nation: Our Survival Depends on Revival." Through this program, Pastor Carter hopes to encourage and equip a generation to pray and rise up in the power of Christ, to plead for mercy on behalf of others. The half-hour program will air his Sunday morning messages on Christian radio stations across the country.

"Perhaps never in history have the prayers of God's people been so crucial," explains Pastor Carter. We all sense the rapid winding down of the remaining time before Jesus returns for His church. Our prayers have the power to move the hand of God! I firmly believe that we are living in a moment where Christ is calling out to us to call out to Him. We now have a window of opportunity to see many rescued from darkness. Let's not miss this moment. We have a chance to lay hold of God's mercy."

"A Call to the Nation" has been exceptionally well-received by radio stations around the country. 11 radio stations have confirmed placement for the weekly program and over 20 are currently considering it. Each of these radio stations represents many people, expanding the reach of the call to pray that God is giving through Pastor Carter. Only God could do this.

The weekly program will begin airing in New York on 570 WMCA The Mission, beginning Sunday, February 5 at 6PM. To hear the program online, visit our website itstimetoprayer.org.
