Pastor's Note

UNCOMFORTABLE

I've realized that I'm going to be stretched and challenged every day. Truthfully, I'd rather not...at least not every day. It's human to want what's easy and comfortable. But, God is not going to grant that. Everything we must face keeps us dependent on God. I'm learning every day to live out Proverbs 3:5-6, "Trust in the Lord with all your heart; do not depend on your own understanding. Seek His will in all you do, and He will show you which path to take."

If we don't live according to this passage of scripture, we'll make plans that are not His will and naturally keep us comfortable. New life in Jesus is when self is no longer the dominant focus. God's will becomes the focus of your affections and purpose in life. Topics like this don't always get a big "amen." But, it should always be a big amen to do whatever Jesus wants.

Let's be willing to be stretched for His glory. Yes, God's will for your life is sometimes really uncomfortable, but God's will for your life is always incredible.

FAITH DAY

A Day of Baseball, Worship & Prayer for Our City

On Saturday, August 5, join the Mets and Times Square Church at CITI Field for a day of baseball followed by a worship and prayer service.

Immediately after the Mets vs. Los Angeles Dodgers game which starts at 4:05pm, there will be worship led by the Times Square Church choir, an exhortation by Pastor Carter Conlon, testimonials by Mets players, including outfielder Curtis Granderson, and a time to pray for New York City. The service begins approximately twenty minutes after the final out of the game. Guests can then move to Field Level on the Third Base side for the service.

If you call Times Square Church your home church, don't miss this event! Pastor Carter has been invited to throw the opening pitch for the game, our choir will be singing the national anthem and the first 600 people to buy tickets from the seats reserved by TSC will get to stand on the warning track for the national anthem!

FAITH DAY will benefit Feed New York, an initiative of Times Square Church which supplies food to local churches for feeding programs in their communities.

"Since 2007, 2008 and 2009 when we gathered for Prayer in the Square in Times Square to pray for the future of our city, I have felt that the Lord would give us another opportunity to come together and pray. That day is FAITH DAY on Saturday, August 5th. Considering the darkness of our present day and the uniqueness of this moment, it would be wonderful to see you there. It's time to pray!" — Pastor Carter Conlon
