Pastor's Note

Welcome to Times Square Church

This month of October we are celebrating the 30th anniversary of this local congregation. From the moment the doors were first opened on October 8, 1987, the presence of God has been here. He has led us everywhere we have gone and the testimony continues to be miraculous.

We have a passion to see people touched by the forgiveness and kindness of the Lord and to see the desires of Christ's heart through this church fully satisfied. For 30 years the people of over 100 Nations have worshipped and reached out together...which, by today's standards amounts to nothing short of a miracle itself!

The Bible shows us that, in Christ, the wedding wine is sweeter at the end and the glory of the latter house greater than the former. According to that promise, we look forward to the Holy Spirit leading us for His purposes into the future. My great hope today is that you will consider coming along with us. For those who already have made that choice, thank you from the bottom of my heart for having made this church what it is.

You are greatly loved.
Yours, in Christ, (for the next 30 years)

CARTER CONLON
Associate Pastor

30th Anniversary

On October 8, 1987, the doors of Times Square Church opened for the first time and the next day, the local papers declared, "SRO (Standing Room Only) for Jesus on Broadway." The Cross & The Switchblade A New Dramatic Presentation

Friday, October 6 & 13 | 7PM
Sunday, 8, 15, 22 & 29 | 6PM

An original stage production based on the best-selling book about our founding pastor, David Wilkerson. A skinny preacher from rural Pennsylvania, he obeyed God's call to bring the good news of Christ to teen gang members swallowed by a life of drugs, violence, and prostitution in the unforgiving streets of New York City. Invite someone who doesn't know the story. Our hope is that many who don't know Christ will come and be transformed by this powerful story of hope and redemption.

Compassion & Care Ministry Meet & Greet Fellowship

Sunday, October 1 | 1:00–2:00PM | Room 204

A heart to love and hands to help those with special needs, people effected by disabilities, the elderly and ill, as well as those who support them. Light refreshments will be served. Join us if you would like to get involved or if you need assistance. We would love to meet you. For more info, email: care@tsc.nyc

Seminar on Wills

Sunday, October 1 | 12:30–2:00PM | ROOM 205

"Wills—what do they do? What else do they do? What don't they do?" This seminar is for those who know they should have a will, but aren't sure why or how to get started.
